Presents

Andrew Schneider

Executive Director of the Connecticut ACLU

Can Conservatives Find Happiness In The ACLU?

Before serving as the organization's Executive Director in Connecticut, Andrew Schneider was Executive Director of the ACLU of West Virginia for six years. During his tenure there, the affiliate's membership more than tripled and its budget quintupled in size. Schneider spearheaded a successful campaign in West Virginia to pass legislation to combat racial profiling. For those efforts, he was honored by the NAACP with the Freedom Award. From 1998 to 2001, Schneider served as the Development Director for the ACLU in Connecticut.

Andrew Schneider will talk about recent ACLU activities in the state and nation, and about his plans for the coming year.
