Civil Liberties and the Election

Join us Monday, October 11, 2004, 7:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden

Please notice the meeting date is a week earlier than usual!

We are pleased to present the new Legal Director of the Connecticut Civil Liberties Union, Annette Lamoreaux, in a talk on "Civil Liberties and the Election," on Monday, October 11, in the main meeting room, following an informal half-hour for refreshments beginning at 7:30 p.m. (To accommodate Annette's busy schedule the regular Humanist monthly meeting has been moved to this night from the usual third Monday of the month.)

Previously while working for the ACLU of Texas, Ms. Lamoreaux represented (1) a death row inmate in suing the state court judge who refused to appoint his long time appellate lawyer to represent him at retrial, (2) a minor seeking release from custody to obtain an abortion, and (3) over a dozen Arab, Muslim and South Asian men during FBI interviews. A former staff attorney at the Texas Death Penalty Resource Center, she represented more than 35 inmates on death row, including one of the few men in Texas to be found too incompetent to be executed. Since coming to Connecticut she has been active in overturning unconstitutional local ordinances restricting political signs around the state. She speaks frequently on civil rights and civil liberties topics around the country.

Don't miss this important talk! Bring a friend to 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden on Monday, October 11. Coffee and conversation begins at 7:30 p.m. followed by the main presentation at 8:00 p.m.

"Unconstitutional" on October 25

We have arranged to sponsor a showing of the documentary film "Unconstitutional," by Robert Greenwald, in the main meeting room at 700 Hartford Turnpike on Monday, October 25, in a program starting at 7:30 p.m.

According to the Connecticut Civil Liberties Union, which has exclusive distribution rights to this hour-long film, it details "the shocking way that civil liberties of American citizens have been infringed upon, curtailed, and rolled back since 9/11 – all in the name of National Security." This is one of a series of films by Greenwald including "Uncovered," "Unprecedented," and "Outfoxed."

The film will be shown at 8:00 p.m., after our usual informal half hour of refreshments beginning at 7:30 p.m. A general discussion will follow the showing. All are welcome.

Book Discussion: "Demonic Males"

Join us at the lovely home of Joseph and Miriam More on Saturday, October 9 at 3:30 p.m. for a discussion of the book, "Demonic Males: Apes and the Origins of Human Violence," by Richard Wrangham and Dale Peterson.

Booklist reviewer Steve Shroeder says of this book, "The book is an accessible, gripping, sometimes surprising account of the depth and extent of violent behavior among primates as well as a provocative discussion of its origins and possible remedies."

Please let the More's know to expect you by calling them at (860)635-6268 or by e-mail at josephmore@sbcglobal.net!

Directions: 10 Windwood Drive, Cromwell, CT 06416:

Humanist Dinners

If you can join us at any of the dinner meetings listed in the calendar please RSVP to editor@cthumanist.org or (203) 264-8546!

The New Haven area dinner and monthly program will swap dates in October so we can accommodate our guest speaker, Annette Lamoreaux, from CCLU. This puts the New Haven Pasta Fair dinner on Monday, October 18, at 7:00 p.m. If you can RSVP for this dinner at <http://humanism.meetup.com>, please do.

Our Danbury/Waterbury area dinner will be at one of the most unusual Indian restaurants in the state: Bombay Restaurant, on Route 37 in Danbury, near the New Fairfield line. From I-84 westbound, take exit 6 to Route 37 north. From I-84 eastbound, take exit 5 to Route 37 north. The restaurant is at 54 Pembroke Rd, Danbury, approximately 3 miles north of I-84 on the left in the tiny Franklyn Plaza (on the left side of the street when you are heading north). Call the restaurant at (203) 746-6425 if you need additional directions.

Now What?

By November 6 we will either be embroiled in another recount fiasco or we'll know the outcome of the presidential election. Regardless, we'll want to discuss it! So join us on Saturday, November 6th at 2:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike for Humanist Conversations when we will consider the implications of the outcome as it stands on that date. Refreshments will be served.
