Ernestine Rose, Humanist Hero!

Many of us know that our member, Bonnie Cohen, has a passionate interest in women's rights issues. Join us on Monday, September 15, when Bonnie presents her humanist s/hero, Ernestine L. Rose.

Noted author and fourth-generation freethinker Barbara Ehrenreich wrote: "If there is one cause which has a logical and consistent affinity with free thought, it is feminism." Ernestine L. Rose is the embodiment of the merger of these two philosophies. Born in 1810 in a Jewish ghetto in Poland to an Orthodox rabbi and his wife, Ernestine was provided with an education which embraced knowledge of the Hebrew language and the bible. But her intellectual capacity had no room for blind faith, and by the age of 14 she rejected the bible and Judaism and discounted as utterly false the notion that woman was inferior to man and insisted on equality for both sexes.

Author of the treatise, "In Defense of Atheism," Rose arrived in the United States in 1836. In addition to speaking out in favor of the abolition of slavery and equal educational opportunities, she launched her successful campaign to secure legal rights for married women, becoming the first lobbyist for women's rights. Rose's fight to resurrect women from the state of "civil death"

Book Discussion

"Creating a World Without Poverty"

The next book we will read is "Creating a World Without Poverty: Social Business and the Future of Capitalism" by Muhammad Yunus. Copies are available at public libraries as well as at bookstores and online.

We will meet to discuss this book on Saturday, September 6, from 2:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. at USNH, 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden.

As an additional optional item, at 1:15 p.m. we will show the 53-minute video of a speech Muhammad Yunus gave at MIT shortly before being awarded the Nobel prize.

As always, feel free to invite a friend.

Dinner Notes

We've had to re-schedule the Lemongrass dinner to Wednesday, September 24. We hope to see you there!

Conversations

Bring a friend on Saturday, September 13 at 2:30 p.m. to 700 Hartford Turnpike when we will view and discuss the August 6 broadcast of ABC's Primetime entitled, "Why Every American Should Care About China: The Emerging Superpower Is Forging Relationships Where the U.S. Isn't," by Bob Woodruff, Gabrielle Tenenbaum, Susan Schaefer and Meena Hartenstein.

The program consists of four segments:

1) The Failure of Western Countries. Angola: Chinese loans with few of the strings typically attached by Western sources are spent on Chinese-built enterprises paid for by ten-thousand barrels of oil per day.

2) We're In This Together. Brazil's entire soy crop goes to China and the demand is bringing more land under cultivation.

3) Burying the Past with Money. Cambodia was wrecked by the Khmer Rouge. The Khmer Rouge was strongly supported by China. But now money and Chinese manufacturing are in play.

4) The United States as China's Partner? Buying the United States' debt and selling manufactured exports around the world.

Join us at 700 Hartford Turnpike on Saturday, September 13 at 2:30 p.m. for this fascinating, timely discussion!

Ride Needed

A member who lives in West Hartford would like to attend our meetings, but needs a ride. If you can help, please contact Carol Stone at (203) 264-8546 or editor@cthumanist.org.
