20th Anniversary

Join us Monday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m. at 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden when we'll celebrate the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Humanist Association of Connecticut with a potluck, cake and reprise!

In the spring of 1989 the Humanists Association of Central Connecticut held its organizational meeting at USNH in what is now the Social Hall. Our speaker was Fred Edwards, then executive director of the American Humanist Association. We are thrilled that Fred will return for our 20th anniversary!

Starting as a local chapter leader in 1977, Fred went on to be executive director at the AHA for fifteen years, and editor of the Humanist for twelve. Most recently he served as director of communications for the AHA and he has just become the leader of a new organization, the United Coalition of Reason, with the purpose of developing coalitions of local humanist, freethought, atheist, Humanistic Jewish, and Ethical Culture organizations all over the country.

Fred's talk will be "Making Humanism Relevant." He says about this topic, "Humanists have gotten good at critiquing traditional religion. But we didn't become humanists merely to make such debunking our focus. Humanism offers a larger view that takes us in positive new directions. And many of those directions include vigorous activism toward social change. There is a long history of humanist and freethought social action to inspire us. Putting our values to work is a central part of our tradition. Sometimes we've had to do this by going against the grain of popular religion; at other times we've been able to leverage our influence through common cause with religious allies."

At the end we'll discuss what we believe to be the central

Walk Against Hunger

This year's Connecticut Food Bank "Walk Against Hunger" will be on Sunday, May 3, at East Rock Park in New Haven. Registration starts at 1:00 p.m. with the walk at 2:00 p.m.

If you'd like to join the HAC team as a walker or sponsor one of our walkers, sign up at any HAC meeting in April or contact Richard Siddall at webmaster@cthumanist.org.

Bible Discussion — David the King, Solomon, after Solomon

- The next meeting of the HAC Bible Discussion Group will be 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 30 at USNH, 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden. As always, please do the reading and feel free to bring a friend.

Reading for May 30:

A. In "How to Read the Bible: A Guide to Scripture, Then and Now" by James L. Kugel, read the following:

- Chapter 27. David the King, pages 474-492
- Chapter 28. Solomon's Wisdom, pages 493-518
- Chapter 29. North and South, pages 519-537

B. Look through the following:

- The Wikipedia entry on "Books of Samuel" (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Books_of_Samuel).
- The Wikipedia entry on "David" (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/David>).
- The Wikipedia entry on "Solomon" (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Solomon>).
- The Wikipedia entry on "Rehoboam" (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rehoboam>).
- The Wikipedia entry on "Elijah" (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Elijah>).
- The New World Encyclopedia entry on "Elijah" (<http://www.newworldencyclopedia.org/entry/Elijah>).

C. Bring in a joke (optional)

- If you like, bring in a joke or short humorous writing that relates to the readings for this meeting.

As always, please do the reading and feel free to bring a friend.

Next Two Books — "Doubt: A History" (Part 1) on 4/18 and "Tuesdays with Morrie" on 5/9

The next book we will read is "Doubt: A History: The Great Doubters and Their Legacy of Innovation from Socrates and Jesus to Thomas Jefferson and Emily Dickinson" by historian Jennifer Michael Hecht. Copies of the book are at public libraries as well as bookstores and online. We will meet to discuss the first half of this book — the Introduction and Chapters 1 through 5 (through page 215) — on Saturday, April 18, when we'll meet from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. at USNH, 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden. As always, feel free to invite a friend or two.

After "Doubt: A History," we will be reading "Tuesdays with Morrie" by Mitch Albom (Note: This is the book by Mitch Albom, not the play of the same title by Jeffrey Hatcher and Mitch Albom, although you may want to read the play as well as the book.) We will meet to discuss "Tuesdays with Morrie" on Saturday, May 9, 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.
