Picnic June 11

Join us for our annual picnic on Saturday, June 11th from noon to 4 p.m., rain or shine, at the lovely home of Dr. Bob and Ms. Joan Rafford at 57 Clearview Knoll Road in Middlebury.

The Raffords will provide hot dogs (regular and vegetarian), soft drinks and beer. Bring a chair and something to share! (Don't bother with the chair if it's raining.)

From New Haven: Take CT-8 north to I-84 and go west to Exit 17. From the exit go straight ahead (west) on CT-64 to the first stoplight...

From Stamford: Take US-7 north to I-84 and go east to Exit 17. At the exit turn left onto CT-63, go straight to the second stoplight, and turn left again onto CT-64...

From Hartford or Torrington: Take CT-8 or I-91 south to I-84 and go west to Exit 17. From the exit go straight ahead (west) on CT-64 to the first stoplight...

...From the junction of CT-64 with CT-63: Head west on CT-64 less than one mile, passing through one more stoplight. If you pass a gas station you have gone too far. On the right, look for Tzepos Law Firm sign. At that sign, turn right onto Clearview Knoll Road and drive to the top of the hill. Number 57 is the last house on the left. Park in the driveway or on the street.

If you have any trouble finding them, the Raffords' phone number is (203) 758-9798.

Movie & Discussion with Director

On June 4, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at USNH, 700 Hartford Turnpike in Hamden, we will view the 72-minute documentary, "Pledge of Allegiance Blues," about Michael Newdow's quest to remove the words "Under God" from the Pledge of Allegiance. Lisa Seidenberg, the director of the film, will lead a discussion following the viewing. Refreshments will be served.

Conversations: Forgiveness

This month's Humanist Conversations will be on the third Saturday, June 18th, at the usual time, 2:30 p.m.

Generally regarded as a positive response to human wrongdoing, forgiveness is a conceptually, psychologically, and morally complex phenomenon. Forgiveness has over the past quarter century engendered the interest of scholars and practitioners in such disparate fields as psychology, law, politics, international affairs, sociology, and philosophy. To assist our discussion, we will watch a short excerpt from the PBS film Forgiveness: A Time to Love and a Time to Hate.
